Dear Friends

Last Sunday, whilst on vacation at his summer residence near Rome, Pope Leo commented on the great Parable of the Sower that we all heard at Mass, with some good advice for the weeks of summer, and quoting oone of the gretest of the Fathers of the Church. Here's what he said:

"Jesus himself, the Word made flesh, who gave his life for our salvation, is the seed that the Father continues to sow throughout the world so that, by dying, he may bear much fruit (cf. Jn 12:24). It is true that sometimes he finds in us hard and unresponsive soil, at other times distracted soil, like the beaten path, the rocky ground, or the thorny bushes. Yet there are also moments when he finds receptive and fertile ground, and then miracles of love are set in motion that have the power to transform everything — as we ourselves have no doubt experienced in our own lives. For this reason, the Father never ceases to sow, because he knows that the power of his love is stronger than our weakness...

Referring to the "seed" of the Word of God, Saint John Chrysostom asks, "How could it be reasonable to sow among thorns, on rocky ground, or on the path? In the case of seeds and soil, it would not be reasonable; but in the case of souls and doctrine, it is altogether praiseworthy" because in God's hands it is possible that "rocky ground may be transformed into fertile soil; that the path may no longer be trampled underfoot or exposed to every passer-by, but become rich earth; and that the thorns may be cleared away and the seed may enjoy complete security"

Let us therefore resolve, especially during these summer days of vacation, to make room for listening to, reading, and meditating on the Word of God, thereby fostering — together with rest and wholesome recreation — meaningful moments of silence and prayer. In this way, we shall return to our usual activities renewed in body and spirit, ready to proclaim the Good News of the Gospel and ever more capable of contributing to the growth of the Kingdom of God."

We all bring our food and drinks and we share. Everybody is invited. If it is not raining (!), we will go to Bishop's Park, in the area in front of Doneraile Road. Participants should make their way independently, but if someone needs a lift they can write to me at stradapie@gmail.com and we'll do our best to organise a lift. DIOCESAN PILGRIMAGE TO WALSINGHAM SAT 19 SEPT: The cost of hiring a coach for this is now too much to make it possible for us. So, we are combining with White City parish. See the sign-up sheet in church: We have 24 places. The cost for coach + pilgrim donation is £30. Coach leaves 7am and return is about 8pm. It is a long day, but usually a lovely event. NEWS FROM RIGHT TO LIFE UK: Unfortunately, Lauren Edwards MP has confirmed that she is bringing back Kim Leadbeater's assisted suicide Bill, with the next vote in the House of Commons on Friday 11 Sept. This means that we have just over 9 weeks to ensure MPs understand why this dangerous Bill must be rejected then. The good news is that it is going to be much more difficult for the assisted suicide lobby to gain traction and win this vote compared to the last time.

The assisted suicide lobby has now lost the last two major battles it has fought and only 12 MPs need to change their minds for the Bill to be defeated. Some MPs have already indicated that they may change their vote to oppose assisted suicide, so we should be encouraged. But we are not there yet, and this is going to be a big battle. Right To Life UK has launched an EasyAction tool to help you email your MP to ask them to vote NO to assisted suicide in the vote in the House of Commons on 11 September.

Please take 30 seconds to email your MP today to ask them to vote NO to assisted suicide: <https://righttolife.org.uk/Sept11vote>

PROPOSED SUNDAY PARKING RESTRICTIONS: The Council is proposing to extend parking restrictions on Saturday evenings and all day Sunday to every street in the vicinity of the church. If you have an option to take part in the consultation survey, please, if you feel able, opt to keep things as they are. Restrictions will cause problems for many worshippers.
